

Thank you to all for coming, welcome to those new members. I'll be getting in touch with the ENT to reschedule from our November meeting. I apologize for that. We ended up having open discussion which seemed to go well.

-Anna Korbel will be having a "Food Fair" for us during our next Monday, December 3 meeting. She and her girl scout troupe will be making food from the recipe book she made for us. Thank you so much Anna, we appreciate all your hard work! Please let me know if you will be able to make the meeting. See attached flier.

-I have been able to secure the Lone Tree Library for our meetings next year. I'll be sending out a new flier with dates and will update the website too. Here are the Monday dates: Usually the first Monday of the month except when underlined:

1/7/08, 2/4, 3/3, 4/7, 5/12, 6/9, 7/7, 8/4, 9/8, 10/6, 11/3, 12/1/08.

-A special note from Deb Scherrer at FAAN:

Now that the holiday season is getting underway, I would like to draw your attention to an organization that helps FAAN earn money while people search the Internet or shop online.

GoodSearch.com is a search engine that donates half its revenue—about a penny per search—to the charities its users designate. You use it just as you would any search engine, and it's powered by Yahoo! so you get great results. If you designate "Food Allergy and Anaphylaxis Network" as your preferred charity, FAAN benefits every time you do a search.

The day after Thanksgiving—November 23—FAAN will be honored as Charity of the Day. Our logo and a link to our site will be featured on the GoodSearch homepage to raise awareness of our cause.

There's another way for FAAN to benefit. GoodSearch has established GoodShop.com, an online shopping mall that donates a percentage of each purchase to your favorite charity. More than 100 great stores, including The Gap, Best Buy, and Barnes & Noble, have teamed up with GoodSearch, so you can do your holiday shopping and contribute to FAAN at the same time. Again, don't forget to check out GoodSearch on November 23rd! Let your friends and family know, too. Thanks so much for your help!

Have a great Thanksgiving, keep it safe!!!
